

LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE

Lois and Stan Tucker Essay Competition, 2001

SO MANY BOOKS, SO LITTLE TIME

First Prize: $1,000
Second Prize: $500

Liberal Arts College, known internationally for its multidisciplinary "Great Books" Curriculum and commitment to challenging undergraduate education, announces a Special Prize Essay Competition. Open to all College applicants, the 1,000-word essay should address the theme, "So Many Books, So Little Time".

A prize of $1,000 and one of $500, will be awarded upon registration in the College. Typed, double-spaced, English or French essays, must be received at the College before June 30th, 2001.

For more information, call Lina D'Iorio at (514) 848-2565, or write Professor H. Shulman, Principal, Liberal Arts College (SGW Campus, Concordia University, Montreal, Quebec H3G 1M8). Visit Liberal Arts College at 2040 Mackay Street (Thursdays, 4:00-5:00 p.m., our Student-Faculty Coffee Hours—drop in!); consult our Web site (<http://132.205.57.9/LACHomepage.html>) and/or e-mail us at ldiorio@alcor.concordia.ca

Real education for the real world

www.concordia.ca